

Presenter Bio: Bill Culbreth

Deputy Commissioner William R. Culbreth is a 1984 graduate of Wake Forest University and a 1990 graduate of the University of Richmond School of Law. After practicing primarily in the areas of workers' compensation and medical malpractice defense, he joined the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission as a Deputy Commissioner in the Harrisonburg regional office in 1996.

Deputy Commissioner Culbreth is certified as a mediator and mentor mediator by the Virginia Supreme Court and has served as adjunct faculty at James Madison University and Eastern Mennonite University. Deputy Commissioner Culbreth currently serves as Chair of the Virginia Bar Association/Virginia State Bar Joint ADR Committee. In this role, he has been involved in presenting numerous talks and seminars to bar and civic groups in Virginia and nationally. Deputy Commissioner Culbreth has also assisted in teaching the basic mediation course required for certification for all Virginia mediators.